- Knowing what you don't know about Implicit Bias

February 23, 5:00-6:30 p.m.

This webinar will look at how biases impact our work as interpreters in healthcare settings. This interactive session will help participants learn strategies for identifying and addressing their own biases. Participants will have opportunities to discuss ways to easily introduce implicit bias into classrooms and trainings.

- Breaking the silence: “what interpreters need to know about Victim Services Interpreting An Emerging Specialization: Victim Services Interpreting,”

March 9, 6:00-7:00 p.m.

This session teaches interpreters how to be successful in this field while supporting survivor autonomy and avoiding re-traumatization of the crime victim.

- Lexicography and translations, April 10, 1:00-2:00 p.m.

This is a live workshop taught by Dr. Talia Bugel, associate professor of Spanish. It will help emerging and seasoned translators learn the basics.

The Continuing Education Series is a collaborative effort between the St. Joseph Community Health Foundation, Brightpoint and The Language Services Network. For questions or concerns, please contact: Raquel A. Kline at: lsnfortwayne@yahoo.com
