

CONTINUING EDUCATION SERIES FOR INTERPRETERS AND TRANSLATORS

347 West Berry Street, Suite 101
Fort Wayne, IN 46802

SCHEDULE

Fall 2018

All meetings will be held at the St. Joseph Community Health Foundation unless specifically noted. All interpreters and translators currently in our database will be invited to participate in the workshops and webinars via Eventbrite.

September 18 - December 3, 2018 online

This webshop can be accessed any time between September 18 – December 3, 2018.

"Specialized Mental Health Webshop" – St. Catherine University, Cathie Center (Webshop)

There is a shortage of qualified interpreter working in mental health settings. Mental health issues arise in all aspects of a person's life: employment, education, recreation, medical, etc. Often interpreters don't recognize that there are in fact already working in mental health settings. This webshop guides you in assessing if mental health interpreting is within your scope of practice and connects you with a plethora of resources and educational opportunities to start building your skills for working in mental health settings.

This webshop was designed by Kate Block.

What is a webshop? A 90-minute online workshop.

Where? Online, via Canvas

When? Any time between September 18–December 3, 2018

How much? Free

Register: Click here to register directly in Canvas

<http://healthcareinterpreting.org/bhi/webshops/specialized-interpreting-mental-health/>

October – Thursday, October 11, 2018, 5:30 p.m.

"Volunteering: Making Your Investment of Time Worthwhile" (ATA webinar) We will have a list of local non-profit organization/projects that need volunteers. You can sign up to help.

Do you ever wonder why people volunteer? Or how they find the time?

Using her own experience, presenter Jamie Hartz will show attendees how volunteering has shaped her career as a translator. Key to her presentation is how to find the right fit for your time and talent. Managing commitments and expectations is the final piece of the puzzle in making it all work.

November – Saturday, November 3rd, 2018 12:00 noon

"Entering the Changing Interpreting Market – Careers in Translation and Interpreting Matching Your Talent to Current and New Work Opportunities" (ATA Webinar)

Whether you are just graduating from an interpreting program or have been in the market for a while, this webinar is for you!

The interpreting market is undergoing full-scale disruption and expansion right now. Entering and practicing interpreters need to stay up to date with current hiring and recruiting trends to find work.

The ideal skill set for interpreters is changing and expanding.

What was once "the way things are done" is rapidly shifting as technological platforms gain acceptance and demand for interpreting grows.

Join us for this lively webinar that will explore what you need to know to succeed outside the classroom in a changing professional landscape.

December meeting - To be announced

The continuing education series is a collaborative effort between the St. Joseph Community Health Foundation and Language Services Network. For questions, contact Raquel A. Kline 260.426.6764 ext. 400 or email: lsnfortwayne@yahoo.com