WHAT WE FUND

Blessed Mary Catherine Kasper Award (Up to $1,500 annually) This is a $1,500 award established in honor of the Foundress of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ, for outstanding service to the poor.

Dr. Louis and Mrs. Anne Schneider Fellowships (Up to $2,000 annually) These Fellowships for continuing healthcare education may be used to build the capacity of agencies and staffs to provide quality care. A preference will be to provide Fellowships that broaden the base of community health knowledge with new skills, services, and abilities of health professionals in the community.

Frederick J. Pfeiffer Fund in Honor of Charles F. and Henrietta Eckart Pfeiffer These funds are restricted to healthcare programs for capital improvements or acquiring medical & surgical equipment. The majority of these grants are directed to help local clinics acquire medical equipment.

Health and Wellness Grants These funds are to advance programs, projects, and partnerships that improve the access to quality healthcare and the health of the poor and powerless. The Foundation has defined health to include physical, mental, spiritual, dental, and/or visual health. Typically, only programs that can demonstrate that greater than 51% of their clients are very low income with health issues are considered for these grants.

Burn Care and Prevention These funds are restricted to burn prevention education and to educate health care professionals and first responders in emergency situations to treat severe burns with best care practices.
