

NE Indiana Community Needs: Breakdown by Financial Security

Survey Collection Period: March 12 - 24, 2020
Total Responses: 4,967

Length of time respondents can sustain households if they were to stop getting paid

44%	1-2 Weeks
25%	3-4 Weeks
31%	5+ Weeks

Respondents Reporting 1-2 Weeks of Financial Solvency

Compared to the households that can be sustained 3 + weeks

- Significantly more concerned about:
 - paying for prescription medication
 - accessing healthcare
 - finding/purchasing food
- Significantly more likely to seek support from government for:
 - 29% - healthcare
 - 27% - utilities
 - 22% - food/water
- Significantly more worried about purchasing prescription medications in the next 60 days for:
 - 47% - mental health
 - 38% - blood pressure
 - 19% - diabetes
- Significantly more chronic disease in the household
- Significantly less likely to have:
 - an established healthcare provider
 - health insurance
 - the entire household vaccinated for influenza

Highest ranked basic needs - All Respondents

Sources of Support: Food

Sources of Support: Healthcare

